Dear Rollie,

Inclosed is a copy of the affidavit I forwarded to Zsolt at his request. I have had a note from Zsolt saying that [ ] has told him that he [ ] has the document but I don't know whether it has ever actually gotten into Zsolt's hands. You will note that I did not guarantee that Zsolt would not become a public charge. If it is desirable that I do so, I will be glad to submit a second affidavit to that effect.

So far as Christmas is concerned, we do plan to come down, always provided we have Mr. Lewis' gracious permission. I don't think it will be necessary to make any reservations for us since it appears that Mother will have ample room and might be a little hurt if we didn't stay at the house.

The list for the party looks adequate to me although I haven't the faintest idea who among my old associates is left in Washington. Really the only people I care about seeing are the Joyces, the Maddoxes, the Penroses, and the [ ] I. Maybe the Hydes, also, rate that select group but to all the others I am more or less indifferent except for Bill Andrews for whom I never did have much use. I have no other close friends in Washington and Bobbie may invite half a dozen among her associates at NRC. Only one caution—try to keep the party cheap. We are genuinely busted from the way we have to live in New York.

If I don't see you before Christmas, I will 'phone you when we arrive.

Love to Tocky.
